CLASS POLICIES

Kathak dance is an age-old art form of great beauty and complexity. Many years of training are necessary in order to develop a thorough Kathak technique. KDT is fortunate to have Rita Mustaphi, a direct disciple of Guru Pandit Birju Maharaj, as its Artistic Director and Master Teacher. The rest of KDT's teaching staff is composed solely of members of its professional Company. All students are expected to take their dance studies very seriously, as well as:

- ◆ Show respect to their teacher and be courteous to all students, teachers and staff.
- ◆ Approach learning with sincerity and enthusiasm, practicing at home and during breaks.

ATTENDANCE

- Students are expected to attend the class regularly. If a student will miss a class, the KDT office must be notified via email. Include the date/time of absence. Any communicated absence is eligible for a makeup class.
- It is very important to have dancers arrive on time for class. Children should not be left unattended in the lobby, restroom or hallway. Please remind dancers to use the restroom before class. Shoes should be left outside the studio. Arrive fifteen minutes early to allow time for changing street clothes, using the restroom, and tying ankle bells. Students should be ready to begin class at the scheduled time. Note: during the pandemic, we ask that students leave promptly after class in order to minimize everyone's exposure. Look here for further pandemic-era safety policies.
- Extra rehearsals for Sadhana are scheduled weeks in advance, and students should arrange their schedules accordingly. The only excuse for missing a Sadhana rehearsal is illness - other lessons, sports, homework, etc. are not considered legitimate excuses. Missed rehearsals may result in the removal of the student from the performance.
- Students must attend at least three sessions per year in order to perform in two dances at Sadhana, although students who have attended fewer than three sessions may participate in one Sadhana dance at the discretion of their teacher.

CLASS ATTIRE

What is KDT's dress code?

Kathak is a classical dance form, therefore the word 'discipline' is deeply rooted within it. Dancers need to groom themselves before attending a Kathak dance class. At KDT, we emphasize a sense of discipline, comfort and respect for the art form.

- Make sure that you tie your hair off of your face, either in a ponytail or braid. If you have short hair, use secure clips. Don't wear a headband, as it may fall out during vigorous movement. Bangs worn out are fine for younger or less experienced dancers, but as you progress and begin doing more vigorous movements, you should pin your bangs back.
- Make sure that you wear clothing that is breathable and comfortable. Your clothes should allow you to achieve maximum range of motion and see your own body line in the mirror. It should also respect the Indian dance etiquette regarding hemlines and sleeve length. Recommended attire includes Indian salwar/Kameez or churidar/Kameez and/or dupatta. Kameez and kurta are tops that go down to the knee--not too much above or below. They can have short sleeves or 3/4 sleeves, but not sleeveless. Churidar or Salwar are recommended to be worn on bottom. A churidar is tight at the shin and ankle--literally creating "churis" or bracelets with material around the ankles. Salwar are wider pants. Older students must tie their dupatta. Tank tops, shorts and jeans are not permitted.
- Make sure that you own a set of ankle bells or 'ghungru' and tie them properly and securely before each class so that you will not hurt yourself. Ghungru are sacred to Indian dance and should not be worn with shoes. Dancers must be barefoot - socks are not allowed. Make sure ghungru are strung on a rope as intended for Kathak dance. Children need 50 bells per foot; teens/adults need 75 - 100 per foot. KDT no longer sells ankle bells, and recommends purchasing them on Amazon.com.

CLASSROOM PROTOCOL

- Do not eat, drink, or chew gum during class. Only water is allowed in the classroom.
- For a focused learning atmosphere, non-dancers (including parents), siblings, and friends are requested not to attend the classroom.

- Video/audio recording of the class is strictly prohibited. We strongly encourage students to rely on memory rather than technology. Regular home practice will aid in this process. All audio and video are the intellectual property of Katha Dance Theatre.

ALL MUSIC AND CHOREOGRAPHY PERFORMED OR TAUGHT BY KATHA DANCE THEATRE COMPANY AND SCHOOL IS COPYRIGHTED AND MAY NOT BE PERFORMED, RECORDED, TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY OR STORED WITHOUT THE ARTIST'S KNOWLEDGE AND WRITTEN CONSENT. VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY MAY RESULT IN ENROLLMENT TERMINATION.

STUDENT EVALUATION

Students receive evaluation in the form of 1) attendance and review of the Fall season show performed by Katha Dance Theatre company members, 2) technique testing, 3) written evaluation, and 4) Sadhana performance. Informal evaluations will be provided after each session. Teachers review these assessments as they make class placement decisions the following school year.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

Katha Dance Theatre School of Dance is a non-profit arts organization. This means that all income, including tuition, grants and gifts go directly to the operation of its performances and programs. Tuition is annually drafted to cover the cost of classes, rental of the studio spaces, maintenance of the Company, and administrative costs. Performances and programs extending beyond these classes must come from additional resources.

The quality of our program has a direct relationship to the quality of involvement from our families. Please watch for emails from the KDT's office requesting volunteers throughout the school year, as all parents and students are encouraged to become active participants in the community by volunteering.

STUDENT SECURITY

In-person Kathak classes by Katha Dance Theatre are held at its home base studio in St. Louis Park. It's imperative that parents and students understand the following security guidelines to ensure everyone's ongoing safety at the studio.

- Please pick up your student within 10 minutes of the end of class. Late pickups are an inconvenience to the staff, and Katha Dance Theatre does not provide childcare.
- If an emergency makes it impossible for parents to pick up their child, parents should make other arrangements and inform their child's teacher:

Rita Mustaphi | 612-709-0138
 Monica Singh-Shukla | 763-234-9647
 Sarika Haris | 612-220-4985
 Nivedita Sahni | 763-732-9592

- Katha Dance Theatre is not responsible for lost items. Please do not bring valuables to the studio.
- Please read our pandemic-era health and safety guidelines here.

EMERGENCIES

Katha Dance Theatre, its teachers, dance studios and performance premises are not responsible for injuries sustained during class, rehearsal and/or performances.

In the event of an injury or illness, we will contact the designated emergency contact from the student's registration form. If we cannot reach anyone and medical treatment is needed immediately, we will call 911 and transport the student to the nearest medical emergency service. If you would prefer an alternative arrangement, you must inform Katha Dance Theatre via email.

PERFORMANCES

Performance is a crucial part of an education in Kathak, equal in value to classroom instruction.

- Katha Dance Theatre company members perform in Season show(s); eligible company apprentices may also be invited to perform at the show. All KDT students are required to attend KDT professional performance(s) as part of their yearly evaluation.
- Students may be requested to perform at various community festivals and celebrations throughout the year. Participation in these performances is not mandatory, but highly encouraged.
